

Business Aviator with Peachtree Integration

Business Aviator becomes the primary sales, purchasing and inventory management application at your business after you've performed the initial imports and setup with your Peachtree Accounting system.

Peachtree Accounting is updated when any sales, purchasing or inventory related operation takes place in Business Aviator so your Peachtree Accounting system is still maintained properly. You can continue using the other great (non inventory-related) features of accounting as you please!